Intro. Why do you think that a child's first and strongest impressions of what God is like come from their relationship with their parents?

How does Paul's instruction in 1 Corinthians 11:1 apply to parents?

Why is God as Father mentioned only 8 times in the Old Testament, but 253 times in the New Testament?

How do earthly fathers influence a child's understanding of their heavenly Father (Matthew 6:9)?

1A. Why is it important for each generation to speak highly of God's power to the next (Psalm 145:4)? Why should examples of God's power come from both the Bible and our time?

1B. What is the importance of both parents and children meditating on God's character and actions (Psalm 145:5)?

1C. How does parents worshipping God influence their children ((Psalm 145:7)?

1D. In what ways does making God our ultimate hero impact both children and others in our lives?

2A. How can parents show examples of God's grace and mercy to their children (Psalm 145:8a)?

2B. What are some ways that parents can show steadfast love ((Psalm 145:8b)?

2C. Why is it important for parents to be good in all their interactions with others (Psalm 145:9)?

2D. What does the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23) tell us about God's character and how we can grow in it?

3A. How can God's actions in Psalm 145:14 be emulated by parents?

3B. What is the responsibility of parents to provide for their children (Psalm 145:15, 1 Timothy 5:8)?

3C. Why is it important to be there for your children when they call (Psalm 145:18)?

3D. In what ways can parents show that they help those in need beyond their own family?

3E. How has your view of God been shaped by your parents? How can you correct any wrong views of God that you have gotten in the past?
